Overview

How would you like to be let in on a "little secret" that lets you travel the world like royalty for pennies on the dollar?

Would you like to know what thousands are now turning to as the ultimate solution for their luxury travel? (hint: it's not a timeshare) How would you like to say "goodbye" to the monthly bills, never ending maintenance fees, or not getting the weeks you want?

How would you like to create the vacation lifestyle of your dreams, one that you know you deserve?

Since 1986, one of the best kept secrets in the travel industry has been a VIP vacation membership club specializing in luxury travel. Available only through private consultation, to exclusive clientele, these memberships sold for over ten thousand dollars and were worth every penny of it.

For a select few that could afford these exclusive memberships, they provided the vacation lifestyle of their dreams. Now through an exclusive worldwide contract and the marketing power of the Internet, these luxury vacation memberships are available to you and your loved ones at a fraction of the price.

With your Platinum Luxury Resort Membership, you'll have unrestricted access to over 5,000 luxury resort destinations around the world!

With no blackout dates or restricted weeks, you are in complete control. Whether you want to go to Hawaii or Cabo in peak season, Colorado in ski season, Arizona in golf season, or take a Disney Cruise in any season, our membership offers a service like no other.

And that's not all, these memberships save money in all aspects of your vacation travel, from airline travel to cruises, from car rental to excursion packages, you can save money everywhere. As a matter of fact, these lifetime memberships can pay for themselves in only two or three vacations.

For example, situated in one of Mexico's most popular vacation destinations, the Sheraton Baganvillas Resort Vacation Club is one of Puerto Vallarta's top rated resorts. When comparing the exact same size unit and dates, here is what you'll pay elsewhere for a one bedroom suite overlooking the ocean for 8 days and seven nights...

Comparisons

Imagine having a worldwide selection of resorts with unlimited year-round access.

While membership requests are subject to availability, your selection is not limited to exchanges or trades. When you have to rely on other "trade-ins" as your source of inventory, your choices are extremely limited. Now imagine a customer service who will contact the resort directly on your behalf, and go to work to secure your chosen dates and unit size...

There is no comparison!

Membership offers two different methods in which to book your resort stay; from the worldwide registry (where you select your own dates and unit size), or from the extensive inventory of "live weeks." (pre-purchased inventory) These weeks below were "live" and available for immediate purchase at the time of comparison and are typical of membership offerings. Each example was done by comparing the exact dates and unit size that membership was offering at the time.

Leadership & Staff

Global Resorts Network leadership and staff are among the most experienced in the travel industry. Members benefit from and have access to this unparalleled depth of travel industry knowledge and expertise.

Our commitment to superior service, integrity, and attractive prices, are the cornerstones on which we have built our growth and success. From a few offices in Canada and Mexico, we've grown to a worldwide membership, enjoying access to quality accommodations around the globe.

How can Global Resorts charge $298/wk for a 5 star resort?

It's simple, all major resorts hate empty rooms! To help fill rooms, specials are offered to exclusive members through companies like Global Resorts Network.

Back-end revenue!

Keeping high occupancy rates has several benefits. The resorts still have revenue coming in, even if the rates are discounted. And, the most significant benefit is the "back-end" revenue. The resorts make a lot of money from their restaurants, bars, activities, spas, souvenir shops, etc.

Global Resorts Network has pre-purchased over 250,000 suites for their members.

"Thank you for the prompt service, it gives us the confidence that our money is well invested,"
